One of our customers says, "Lori's knowledge of the healthcare revenue cycle is amazing. Her years of experience have allowed her to be one of the most experienced revenue cycle consultants that I know. She understands healthcare from both the provider and payor perspectives, which allows her more insight on what can be accomplished. Lori is extremely knowledgeable about follow-up activities and how to get money due a provider from managed care companies. She is extremely organized, and pays meticulous attention to detail. I can definitely recommend Lori for any revenue cycle needs you may have."
